Search Tips

Childlink has over a million pages and has extensive information on all major topics relating to children and families. To maximise the use of this service we provide the following search tips.

- The searches in Childlink are not case sensitive so entering CHILD ABUSE or child abuse will get the same results.
- Childlink sorts the results of a search in order of relevance.
- If you are unable to find the information you require online you may revert to our online request service where we endeavour to source such information within 24 hours.

When should I use the Regions search?

This search enables you to search regions that are relevant to your subject. For example:

Where can I find information on Safeguarding Children in England?

- In this case, a Region Search is ideal as there are documents on Safeguarding Children for each region in the UK.
- Enter Safeguarding Children in the Search Box at the top of the screen. Select Papers from the Categories Menu and select England from the Regions Menu.
- On the search results page select the first entry Safeguarding Children - A Joint Chief Inspectors' report on arrangements to safeguard children .

Browsing the Childlink site

Childlink's strength is that it is easy to navigate the relevant archives relating to many topics in Family and Child Care. The Archives have been organised into six categories. They are:

- Welfare
- Education
- Health
- Justice
- Youth
- Employment

Each category has been set out in the same standardised format ensuring consistency and quick retrieval of appropriate information. Childlink operates a three click approach which ensures that students only need three clicks at any time to access the required information.
