When should I use the Search Facility of Childlink?

With over a million pages online the Child Care & Education examples below illustrate just how easy it is to use the search facility to quickly and accurately find a wide variety of information.

Example 1

There are many definition of Early Years but our preferred one for this guide is taken from The Edinburgh Council s Education Service Improvement Plan. To access this definition just follow these simple steps.

(1) What is the definition of early years?

- Enter early years into the search box at the top of the screen and select Papers from the Categories menu. Then press the go button.
- On the search results page click on the entry entitled Definition of Early Years . This will enable you to view the definition.

Example 2

When undertaking a Qualification in Advanced Diploma in Child Care & Education it is important that students have a working knowledge of the legislative context in which they operate.

These include:

- UN Convention on the Rights of the Child
- Children Act 1989
- Education National Curriculum Foundation Stage Early Learning Goals England Order 2003
- Disability Discrimination Act 1995
- Special Educational Needs and Disability Act 2001

(2) Where can I find a copy of UN Convention on the Rights of the Child?

- Enter UN Convention into the search box at the top of the screen and select Legislation from the Categories Menu. Then press the go button.
- On the search results page select the first entry to view a copy of the UN Convention. There are many articles in the U.N. Convention (which the UK ratified in 1992), which are focused on the Child's right to grow in a healthy learning environment.

Search Tips

Childlink has over a million pages and has extensive information on all major topics relating to children and families. To maximise the use of this service we provide the following search tips.

- The searches in Childlink are not case sensitive so entering EARLY YEARS or early years will get the same results.
- Childlink sorts the results of a search in order of relevance.
- If you are unable to find the information you require online you may revert to our online request service where we endeavour to source such information within 24 hours.

When should I use the Regions search?

This search enables you to search regions that are relevant to your subject. For example:

Where can I find information on Safeguarding Children in England?

- In this case, a Region Search is ideal as there are documents on Safeguarding Children for each region in the UK.
- Enter Safeguarding Children in the Search Box at the top of the screen. Select Papers from the Categories Menu and select England from the Regions Menu.
- On the search results page select the first entry Safeguarding Children - A Joint Chief Inspectors' report on arrangements to safeguard children .

Browsing the Childlink site

Childlink's strength is that it is easy to navigate the relevant archives relating to many topics in Family and Child Care. The Archives have been organised into six categories. They are:

- Welfare
- Education
- Health
- Justice
- Youth
- Employment

Each category has been set out in the same standardised format ensuring consistency and quick retrieval of appropriate information. Childlink operates a three click approach which ensures that students only need three clicks at any time to access the required information.
